My intentions are:

- I would like to discuss making a bequest to Education for Social Renewal Foundation in my will. Please contact me by telephone.
- My bequest is non-specific, to be distributed at the discretion of the trustee to Rudolf Steiner educational institutions in Australia in relation to land acquisition/buildings or scholarships requirements.
- My bequest is in relation to a specific student or group of students, or to a specific Rudolf Steiner educational institution. I have discussed with the institution their requirements in relation to land/buildings acquisition and scholarships. I am aware that the Foundation has requirements for potential recipients. See: <http://www.educationforsocialrenewalfoundation.com/requirements>

Please note that the intention of the trustees will be to fulfil the aims of the donors. However, we are obliged to indicate that, legally, money donated to our public ancillary fund can be directed at the complete discretion of the trustees.

The name/s and contact details of the student or group of students you wish to support through the Scholarship Fund (the institution in question should contact the Foundation):
